FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky as second class mailable matter.

GEORGE A. LEWIS.

Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, MARCH 24, 1883.

Please bear in mind that the blue pencil mark X on your paper indicates that the time for which you have paid has expired and you are requested to call around and settle.

Garden seeds in bulk at Banta's.

Chickens, geese, fish, and oysters at Banta's.

Dr. Instone B. Crockett, formerly of this city, died at Nevada, Mo., recently. The deceased removed with his mother, to Missouri, in 1855, being at the time a lad of eight or ten years.

Talk is cheap but there is no flour equal to J. E. M. Don't let anybody talk you into paying as much for an inferior flour as you have to pay for J. E. M. Price $4.00 per 100 pounds.

Assistant District Attorney Geo. DuRelle came up from Louisville Thursday and settled with Messrs. Jas. Saffil & Sons for the lot on which the Valley Mills stand, recently sold by them to the Government, and we may now expect soon to see work begin on the new post office building. Mr. John T. Buckley, who purchased the buildings upon the lot, began pulling them down Thursday.

Mr. John W. Rupe has resigned as day policeman and accepted the position of keeper of the railroad bridge. No better officer than he has ever worn the blue in this city, but he has been so unfortunate as to get himself so crippled up in the service of the city that a position such as the one he accepted is much better for him, as he cannot get around as lively as he once could. He will prove a faithful servant of the railroad company.

Mr. Sherman Fink, who lives upon the farm of Mr. R. K. Woodson, in the Big Eddy, took his little son, Freddie, aged about ten years, out to work with him Tuesday morning, and about twelve o'clock the little fellow left him, saying he felt cold and would go to the house. Mr. Fink followed on in a few minutes after, but upon arriving at home learned that his son had not been there and started out to hunt for him, when he discovered his hat floating in a small pond by the side of the Glens Creek pile, a short distance from the house, and thinking the little fellow might have fallen in, he prodded a wood hook and began dragging the bottom of the pond, and in a few minutes his lifeless corpse was brought to view. It is not known how he happened to fall in, as no one was near him at the time.

Depot Deviltry.

Saturday evening the people who had gone down to the evening train from Lexington highly entertained. A Captain Hotel waiter had gone into the saloon to a brakeman, very properly put him out, after landing on the pavement, he called the brakeman, several insulting names, and a slugging match began. The police separated them and pulled the African, but released him in a short time.—Commonwealth.

The true state of case is this: The colored man went into the car with a colored woman, carrying an armful of bundles for her, and as soon as she found a seat he deposited the bundles and was going out of the car when the brakeman came in and demanded to know if he was going on that train, to which the colored man replied that he was not, when the brakeman said: "Well you get out of here quick or I will kick you out," and gave the man a push which sent him out of the car and onto the platform of the car in front. Feeling indignant at being treated so the colored man remonstrated, the brakeman ordered him to leave, the colored man cursed him and the two came to blows, when Officer Stephens arrested the colored man and Officer Rupe the brakeman. The case was tried before Judge Steed Tuesday morning when the brakeman was fined five dollars and the colored man discharged. The brakeman then swore out a warrant against the colored man under the provoke law and he was fined $2.50 in square Bohemian's court.

Banta bought Early Rose and "White Star" potatoes in Michigan this year, therefore you can rely upon getting pure seed.

There will be a breaking of missionaries at the Christian Church on Wednesday evening.

A protracted meeting will be begun at the Christian Church in this city the latter part of next month.

Mr. John T. Buckley has purchased of Mr. James Saffil, sr., the old Valley Mills buildings for five hundred dollars.

Miles Crystal Flour is sold at $3.75 per 100 pounds, and is guaranteed as good as any patent flour sold in the market, except the J. E. M.

Verify it easier for a Councilman to climb a greased pole downward than to satisfy the average citizen of this unfortunate city.

The Presbyterian Church in this city, at the meeting on Friday night, called Rev. G. Hunter, of Georgetown, to become pastor of their church.

Mr. A. C. Keeney, who has been very ill for sometime at his residence near this city, gradually growing worse and his death at any time would not be a surprise to his family.

Mr. J. D. Pickett has rented the Strobridge property, on Main street, and removed his family from "Point Breeze," above the city, down to town. Dr. W. B. Rodman and family have removed to "Point Breeze."

Messrs. J. & J. M. Saffil have rented the room on St. Clair street formerly occupied by Drs. Rodman & Duvall, and have removed their office to it, and will hereafter be found there by persons having business with the firm.

South Shelly street is being rapidly built up. Two new houses are going up there now. Let the road connecting that street with the Shellyville pile be improved so that the country people can get into that part of the city without giving a mile around.

There is no place in the State where the divine right of kicking at any and every thing is more freely exercised than in this city. If there has been anything of a public nature undertaken here in the last ten years, that a lot of growlers did not kick against we don't know what it was.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

"Rough on Rats."

Clears out rats, mice, roaches, flies, ants, bed-bugs, skunks, chipmunks, gophers, 25¢. Drugists.

BURNSIDE, KY., March 19, 1883.

You would not look for me here, but Frankfort is well represented at this place. Messrs. Alex. Harper, Ben Brown, Charles L. Jones, Mr. B. Wright, Jimie Wais, C. K. and George Drury, and last, though not least, Old Charley are here, and we also have local option.

Messrs. Ben Brown and Wm. Cooper have been catching a lot of fine salmon, weighing from five to eighteen pounds each. I tell you they are pretty. They caught near eighty pounds last week, and are at it again.

The country is not near so wild here as I expected to see. The hills are no worse than those about our old city, and the people are as kind as I ever met with, and all seem to want one to do well when he comes to live among them.

There are some very interesting natural curiosities here. Among them is a petrified snake, which is about two feet long, eighteen inches long and eight inches wide. I wrote Col. E. C. Wentworth to it, but have not heard from him. It is the most perfect thing of the kind I have ever seen. You can find stones here in almost every imaginable shape, which beat art all hollow. I have been up both forks of the Cumberland, and found them and when the river goes lower will make another trig and gather some of the prettiest stones to bring home with me.

All the books look for your paper with great anxiety and all send their respects and best wishes for its prosperity.

Send me the ROUNDABOUT.

As ever your well-wisher,

C. G. S.

Bald Knob.

Mr. Willie Hall, of Harper's Ferry, Henry county, visited friends in this neighborhood Saturday and Sunday.

Died.—On the 17th of March, 1883, Mrs. Margaret Moore, in the 78th year of her age. She left many relatives and friends to mourn her loss.

Mr. Jack Clark, of Bark Branch, has removed to his brother's farm near Bald Knob.

Messrs. Fleen, Mahoney and Harry Grubbs have burned and sowed a tobacco plant bed 200 feet long by fifteen feet wide. One more will furnish them all the plants they will need.

Messrs. J. L. Greenwell & Son seem to be busy putting up new plows and doing repair work generally.

Some thief, on Friday night the 16th, stole a lot of potatos from an old negro by the name of Preston Adams and also a stand of beets from Mr. Jesse Smith.

We see the writer from Scrabble, Shelly county, pass with his market wagon, gathering up news. That's right, old boy, go at it in earnest, but a two-horse wagon would suit you better.

GUESS.

TRUEVILLE, Owen County.

What would we do without the little ROUNDER?

Mr. Luis Curry has removed to his place in Franklin county.

There are now five cases of whooping cough in this vicinity.

Mr. Ezra Webster sold to Mr. Church his sorrel horse for $100 cash.

Born.—To Mr. Sam Johnson and wife, a daughter—weight 14 pounds.

Mr. Brack Ellis, who was injured by Mr. E. G. Shelly's team, is some better.

Misses Emma and Mollie Powers are the guests of Miss Mamie D. White this week.

MARRIED.—At this place, on Sunday the 11th inst., Mr. Ike Smith and Miss Mary Renfro.

Miss Louisa Smith has the whooping cough very badly, and is suffering a great deal from it.

The party given at Mr. Orlando Claxon's was largely attended and greatly enjoyed by the young people.

The pretty weather of last week gave Mr. Jas. E. Cardwell a severe attack of Spring fever, but he is improving slowly now.

Mr. Scott McQueen, while engaged in clearing up a piece of ground, cut down a tree, which fell on his leg and came near killing him. He was improving at last, however.

Mr. Alley Karsner sold his tobacco crop to Messrs. Forman & Head ten and twelve dollars and Mr. Lee Cardwell sold his crop to Mr. E. M. Bramwell for nine and four dollars.

Mr. Charley Stevens, while burning a tobacco bed a few days since, had his clothing to take fire and came near being seriously burned, but was saved by a bucket of water being thrown upon him in time.

We regret to announce the death of Mr. Wm. Smither, which took place on the 23rd of February. The remains were interred in the burrying ground at Geo. W. True's, the funeral being largely attended. He leaves a wife and a child five months old to mourn his loss.

Mr. Jas. L. Smith sold a road mure to Mr. Lee Cardwell for $400 cash. Mr. E. M. Bramwell bought a road mure to Mr. Jas. L. Smith for $40 cash and sold her the next day to Mr. Tom Claxon for $60 cash. Mr. Jas. L. Smith bought a cow from Mr. E. M. Bramwell for $90, on time.

Married.—At the residence of the bride's father, March 1st, Mr. John B. Roberts and Miss America Haydon, Attendants: Mr. Wm. Charon and Miss Sarah Claxon. After the ceremony the bridal party and invited guests partook of an elegant supper, which had been prepared for the occasion. C. T.

A. R. Trevlyn, Louisville, Ky., says: I used Brown's Iron Bitters for nervousness, and it has given me entire and immediate relief."

Editor Roundabout:

A press of business, in this, the busy season for farmers, preparing for tobacco growing, &c., and a disinclination to band epithets with such a notorious and worthless character as A. M. Roberts, have prevented my naming him in my previous article on "Unscrupulous Compensation," published by said Roberts in your issue of March 8, sooner. Feeling that the general public can have no interest in any controversy between Roberts and myself, I shall not inflict any lengthy response upon them or occupy much of your space in replying to a communication in the table and directory of your paper, in equal part, but the following is the true and unvarnished account of the innocent victim deserved upon him for protection, is gratifyingly frank in the sight of God, however he may appear in the eyes of men. There are, however, parents that intend to care for their children, but who through carelessness or the urgency of other duties permit them to become the innocent victims of disease. Such parents may be guilty of intentional wrong, but the dire results upon their children are just as grievous.

These are truths which must be manifest to every worthy parent and especially in a vicinity where the unkind effects of the atmosphere, the water and the general tendency to malaria are so great. There are many families in this locality who have been called upon to mourn untimely losses, but the greatest will be experienced, but the smallest of these will be suffered, if the heartless and soulless brute will be given. It is that of the late W. O. Thomas. The children were all most promising, but for some unexplained reason their health and strength seemed to gradually lessen until their friends feared they were the victims of consumption. One by one, they sickened and died until three had departed and two of the surviving brothers were also taken ill. The two remaining brothers, Edward, Herman, however, seemed the stronger of the two and, while his younger brother was confined to the house constantly, and to his bed much of the time, Herman was able to be about but in so weak a condition that he had no desire to play. Eddie's symptoms were terrible! He found difficulty in retaining food upon his stomach, and was continually vomiting. His appetite was gone, and he was unable to sleep soundly. The physician who treated him frequently said that death was only a question of a few days. At that critical time his elder brothers, aroused almost to the pitch of desperation by the three deaths that had recently occurred, and the other ominous signs of approaching death, determined to take the case into their own hands. They accordingly did so, and secured a remedy that was then being universally used and began giving it to him. Its effect at first was slight, but any improvement was considered a good symptom. By degrees his strength returned; he was able to eat with a relish, then walk about the house and finally he was able to go outside. He was then able to go to school again, and yet the effects of disease had taken deep root. Their care in one direction had been counteracted by unknown carelessness in another. Their love was sincere, but wholly misdirected. They should have known that children are just as liable to kidney and liver diseases as grown up people; and that the fatality of Bright's disease of the kidneys is just as great in the little children as in adults. On the contrary, I know that A. M. Roberts advised Edie. He claimed that Roberts was in my presence on Friday, 6th of May, 1883, for what Roberts owned him. Roberts paid part of the claim in my presence and Edie. had me sign an order to said A. M. Roberts for $30 cents for money I loaned him on the seventh day of May, 1883. Edie. was with his brother from the 6th of May, 1883, to the 1st of June, 1883, when he married her. I presented the order to said A. M. Roberts on the 9th and he accepted and afterwards paid it out of the debt he owed said Edie. when he married her. Given under my hand March 22, 1883.

J. N. BRIDGES,
ELMVILLE, KY., March 22, 1883.

This is to certify that I lived in a quarter of a mile of John K. Hedrick in '81 and know the statement made by A. M. Roberts in his communication from Minorsville to be entirely true in every respect. I lived at the time, and live now, near Elmville, one and a half miles from Hedrick's residence and am cognizant of all the facts.

ELMVILLE, KY., March 22, 1883.

In regard to A. M. Roberts' statement, claiming to have joined A. K. Hedrick to marry him on, in his communication dated February 26, at Minorsville, Scott and published in the ROUNDABOUT March 8, 1883, I state that said charge is entirely false. I am a man of 60 years of age, and yet have never been married. On the contrary, I know that A. M. Roberts advised Edie. He claimed that Roberts was in my presence on Friday, 6th of May, 1883, for what Roberts owned him. Roberts paid part of the claim in my presence and Edie. had me sign an order to said A. M. Roberts for $30 cents for money I loaned him on the seventh day of May, 1883. Edie. was with his brother from the 6th of May, 1883, to the 1st of June, 1883, when he married her. S. SPENCER O. WIGGINS.

WALNUT GROVE, Owsy Co., KY., March 22, 1883.

This is to certify that I went to see Katie West, late wife of John K. Hedrick, at her home, and at the request of said Hedrick showed her the article of A. M. Roberts in the ROUNDABOUT dated at Minorsville February 6, 1883. She authorized me to say that the charge of being driven off, either in the night or daytime, was true; also that she left in daytime and all assistance to the contrary by whomsoever made are false.

This given under my hand March 21, 1883.

CHARLES R. TACKETT, JR.

ELMVILLE, KY., March 22, 1883.

This is to certify that I live in a hundred yards of John K. Hedrick in '81 and during the time he lived with his wife and to my personal knowledge know that it was by a mutual agreement that he and his wife set a seal. All statements made charge said Hedrick with driving his wife

from his home, either at night or in daytime are false in letter and spirit. I know that she left her home in daytime, and of her own volition. The charge of A. M.

Roberts is false in every word and syllable,

THE LOST CHILD.

A Fate Worse Than Abduction.

How Parents, by a Lack of Precaution and Care, are Responsible for the Death to Their Children.

(Canton, Me., Herald):

The moral and legal responsibility of parents, in the care of their children, is, fortunately, attracting the serious attention of the better portion of the entire country. The many instances of child beating, oppression, and other forms of cruelty which have come to light, demand that something be done, and is sufficient to know that the people are becoming thoroughly aroused. Whether the remedy be in the form of physical violence or physical neglect matters not—the principle in both cases is the same. The man or woman who neglects his or her own health may be pardoned, as the consequences fall upon the individual himself; but the parents of a numerous family, ignorant of medical knowledge, are responsible for the death of innocent children.

These are truths which must be manifest to every worthy parent and especially in a vicinity where the unkind effects of the atmosphere, the water and the general tendency to malaria are so great. There are many families in this locality who have been called upon to mourn untimely losses, but the greatest will be experienced, but the smallest of these will be suffered, if the heartless and soulless brute will be given.

It is that of the late W. O. Thomas. The children were all most promising, but for some unexplained reason their health and strength seemed to gradually lessen until their friends feared they were the victims of consumption. One by one, they sickened and died until three had departed and two of the surviving brothers were also taken ill. The two remaining brothers, Edward, Herman, however, seemed the stronger of the two and, while his younger brother was confined to the house constantly, and to his bed much of the time, Herman was able to be about but in so weak a condition that he had no desire to play. Eddie's symptoms were terrible! He found difficulty in retaining food upon his stomach, and was continually vomiting. His appetite was gone, and he was unable to sleep soundly. The physician who treated him frequently said that death was only a question of a few days. At that critical time his elder brothers, aroused almost to the pitch of desperation by the three deaths that had recently occurred, and the other ominous signs of approaching death, determined to take the case into their own hands. They accordingly did so, and secured a remedy that was then being universally used and began giving it to him. Its effect at first was slight, but any improvement was considered a good symptom.
